Verse 1

D G2 A2 D2 A
There is a baby in a manger whose mother and father are poor
D G2 A2 D2 A
And though He is our King and maker, He came humbly to our world

1st Chorus

D F#m Bm F#m
Beauti – ful . . . far more than we can know
Em G A2
Selfless . . . the way You know You must go
D F#m Bm F#m
Painful, and yet, the glory in Your death
Em A2 D G A
So beautiful, far more than we can know

Verse 2

D G2 A2 D A
This lesson we've taken from the Master, to daily lay down our lives
D G2 A2 D A
And take up the cross which He has given, and leave all of self behind

2nd Chorus

D F#m Bm F#m
Beauti-ful . . . far more than we can know
Em G A2
Selfless . . . the way we know we must go
D F#m Bm F#m
Painful, and yet, the glory in the death
Em A2 D Dsus D
So beautiful, far more than we can know.

Bridge

C G D
And on that day I want to hear Him say, "Well done!" (3X)
C G A Asus A
And on that day I want to hear Him say, "Well done!"

Verse 3

D G2 A2 D A
There is a baby in a manger, who came as the King of the earth

D G2 A2 D A
And I . . . will serve the King for-ever, and willingly lay down my life

3rd Chorus

D F#m Bm F#m
Beauti-ful . . . far more than we can know

Em G A2
Selfless . . . the way I know I must go

D F#m Bm F#m
Painful, and yet, the glory in the death

Em A2 Gm
So beautiful . . . far more than we can know . . .

Em A2 D2
So beautiful . . . far more than we can know
